As we enter the Christmas holiday season, I want to extend my appreciation to the generous folks who have contributed to the County Courthouse Christmas display. This Christmas Display is a new tradition in our community that would not be possible without the support and generosity of our community contributors. I want to give a huge thank you to District Judge Jennifer Dillingham, Atascosa County Court at Law Judge Bob Brendel, Atascosa County Sheriff David Soward, Retired District Judge Lynn Ellison, Methodist Hospital | Atascosa, the Pleasanton Express, Documation, Alonzo and Barbara Peeler, Norma and Tommy Jordan and Adam Figueroa, Thomas Moy and Sons Water Well Drilling and Services, and Linebarger Attorneys at Law. Your dedication to enhancing the holiday spirit in our county is very appreciated, and your contributions will undoubtedly illuminate our courthouse in ways that bring joy to all who pass by. I encourage every one of you to take a moment to visit our display, which will decorate the courthouse lawn for December. I know it will be a sight to see and will stand as a testament to the generosity of our community. While this year's display is already finalized, we plan to grow the collection year by year. If circumstances allow, I invite those who couldn't contribute this time to consider joining us in brightening our county courthouse next Christmas. Your support will continue to make our community shine and keep our new tradition alive.

I can't talk about the Christmas holiday without highlighting the much anticipated Merry on Main event, a celebration that truly represents the spirit of Christmas in Atascosa County. Hosted by the City of Pleasanton, this event annually unites our community for the Christmas season. I am honored to take part in the night parade this Saturday and look forward to witnessing our community come together in celebration. To the organizers, volunteers and everyone involved in making Merry on Main a reality, I extend my best wishes for a successful and joyous event. I also wish the City of Poteet a successful event at their Poteet Winder Wonderland this Thursday and Friday. As we gather to celebrate Christmas throughout the county, let us not forget the importance of safety and consideration for one another.

I look forward to seeing you all out and about this weekend and wish each of you a wonderful holiday season filled with blessings. Together, we are Atascosa Proud!
