Greetings, Atascosa County! I'm excited to share some fantastic news about the upcoming Jourdanton Parade happening this Friday, Dec. 8. Mark your calendars because the Lighted Christmas Parade is set to illuminate the streets, starting at Simmons and ending at the Jourdanton City Park, where you can enjoy visiting with neighbors and sipping hot chocolate. I'd like to extend my thanks to our friends at the Jourdanton Fire Department and Jourdanton Chamber of Commerce for coordinating this wonderful event. Their dedication and hard work have made this celebration possible, and I encourage everyone to join in the festive spirit. To add to the excitement, the County Courthouse will be part of the Christmas Parade route this year. You'll have the opportunity to witness our brand-new Christmas Light Display decorating the Courthouse lawn, facing the Justice Center. This spectacular addition wouldn't have been possible without the incredible generosity of our contributors. I again send my gratitude to the following individuals and organizations whose support brought this project to life: District Judge Jennifer Dillingham, Atascosa County Court at Law Judge Bob Brendel, Atascosa County Sheriff David Soward, Retired District Judge Lynn Ellison, Methodist Hospital |

Atascosa, the Pleasanton Express, Documation, Alonzo and Barbara Peeler, Norma and Tommy Jordan and Adam Figueroa, Thomas Moy and Sons Water Well Drilling and Services and Linebarger Attorneys at Law. Your contributions have made our community brighter this holiday season. For further details about the parade, make sure to follow updates from the Jourdanton Volunteer Fire Department Facebook page and the Jourdanton Chamber of Commerce.

I also want to take a moment to acknowledge and celebrate the recent Christmas events hosted by the City of Poteet and the City of Pleasanton over the past weekend. It was heartwarming to witness the incredible turnout and enthusiasm from our community. I extend my sincere appreciation to everyone involved in organizing these events, as they continue to spread joy and create memorable experiences for our residents. Let's continue to embrace the holiday spirit and make this year's Jourdanton Parade a memorable celebration for all. Together we are Atascosa Proud!
